Mob Threatens Ty Cobb at Boston

TIGERS TRIM SOX

Detroit Invades Boston and Wins an Easy Game.

Phillies Appear to Have N. L. Pennant Cinched.

New York, Sept. 17.—While Detroit encroached upon Boston's lead in the American league race Thursday, Philadelphia drew farther away from its rivals for pennant honors in the National organization.

The Tigers, opening a four game series which threatens to decide the hopes of either aspirant, ran away with the first game by taking into camp three members of Mr. Carrigan's pitching staff upon which Red Sox followers had built their hopes. A margin of only one and a half games separates the leading Red Sox and Tigers now. Jonathan's sluggers, however, must win three out of the four games to take the lead. If they evenly divide the four games, Boston will lead by two and one half games. Thus far the Red Sox have won 11 out of 19 games played with the Tigers.

Cobb Assaulted.
Partisan feeling ran high during the exciting Tiger-Red Sox game at Boston Thursday. It showed between American league race Thursday, Philadelphia drew farther away from its rivals for pennant honors in the National organization.

Again Cobb was the person against whom the feeling was evident when, at the close of the game, he was surrounded by a bleacher crowd. They pushed the Detroit player and he shouldered them back while he answered their gibes. Wads of paper were thrown at him. Cobb's impetuous reply in reaching Cobb's side, but eventually forced a clear space, and assisted by Detroit and Boston players was escorted to the clubhouse. The demonstration against Cobb manifested itself every time he appeared at the plate, the crowd "booming" him each time.

The game itself was decided by the strength and speed of the Detroit attack, which sent Foster, the leading Red Sox twirler, to the bench in the fifth inning. Collins finished that inning and was succeeded by Mays, who allowed two hits. Cobb's impetuous base running resulted in another Detroit run, after he had been hit in the eighth. Daus's delivery deceived the Boston batters, who secured only five hits. Detroit's pitcher was always at the top of his form and fielded his position as well as he pitched.

The Tigers scored first at the outset. Bush was passed. First sacrificed to send him to second, and with Scott pulled out of a position on a hit and run play. Cobb cracked a single through short, Bush scoring. Cobb himself scored a moment later when Veatch's rap took a bad hop over Scott's head. Speaker's catch of Crawford's fly and a direct throw to Hoblitzell to catch Veach at first started a double play which retired the side.

Detroit drove Foster from the box in the fifth after scoring two runs. He was succeeded by Ray Collins. Stanage had singled and Daus was hit by one of Foster's shots. Bush advanced both runners with a sacrifice and Vitt singled to left, scoring both Stanage and Daus.

The Red Sox scored in the fifth. With one out, Gardner scratched a hit. Lewis forced him at second. Barry got to first on Vitt's wild throw. Thomas singled and Lewis scored. Hendrickson, pinch hitting in place of Collins, made a bid for a hit and another run, but Daus leaped into the air for the ball and threw him out at first. In the sixth Mays went in to pitch for Boston and finished the game.

The ambitious Cincinnati Reds failed to stop the Philadelphia Nationals with Alexander in the box at Cincinnati and as a result the Phillies are already figuring how they will spend the five and a half games over both Brooklyn and Boston, who are tied for second place. Brooklyn, after a day's lay-off, was unable to hit Vaughan and lost to Chicago, while wet grounds prevented Boston and St. Louis from playing off a double header.

The Phillies have twenty more games to play while the Braves have to play nineteen and the Superbas seventeen. Therefore, if the Phillies should do nothing more than split even, winning ten and losing ten, the Braves would have to win sixteen and only lose three games to gain the lead and Brooklyn would have to win fifteen out of its seventeen games.

AT THE AUTOMOBILE RACES THIS AFTERNOON.

John Raimy, touted as one of the most terrific half mile track drivers in America. Raimy will attempt to bring the state mile record to Topeka this afternoon.

At two o'clock this afternoon the first field was sent away in the two-day automobile speed meet, the first gasoline speed program ever held under the management of the Kansas State Fair association and the first sanctioned race meeting ever held on the Topeka speedway.

Many of today's events of which there were eight on the program were preliminary to the big event scheduled for Saturday afternoon, the 50-lap Topeka Sweepstakes. The five fastest cars in the time trials today being eligible to the big race Saturday which carries most of the money of the two-day meet, so arranged that it will make the twenty-five miles a battle all the way.

Half of the thousand dollars hung up in first and second money and the remaining five hundred will go to the leader of every lap, ten dollars being the prize to the driver for each lap of the fifty in which he leads.

Today's program contained four competition races, the banner event being the five-mile-for-all which will throw the stars of the meet into a clash for Friday's driving honors.

The list of entries, without doubt the greatest bunch of professional race pilots ever gathered in this section of the state, included veterans who have held and re-held world's speed marks and drivers who have matched skill and daring over practically every well known speedway. The fair management made preparations for one of the largest crowds of the week this afternoon and all precautions were to be taken to keep the spectators thirty feet back from the track fence.

The timers and judges who acted for the harness races will again take care of the auto races and W. W. Webb of Topeka will act as the International Motor Contest representative.

Two of the interesting special events this afternoon were the mile dash by Kilpatrick in his 200 H. P. Ajax built for straightaway racing and the tire and wheel change which gave the spectators an idea of how the drivers in the long distance races are kept supplied with fresh tires at the pits.

SPORT WHEEZES

Being Paroled Dog Most, Prone Pies, Lemon Sandwiches, Etc. (By Clug.)

When the Western league club owners were meeting in Omaha, McGill wired Tip O'Neill, asking him to "please attend." Tip replied that he didn't propose to have the club owners make a monkey out of him.

And then, after he had been fired, boots and baggage, by said club owners he proceeded to make a monkey out of himself by refusing to get off the stool and by assuming an attitude of opposition.

It is rumored around the circuit, although John Savage refuses to confirm it, that another meeting of club owners will be held in Omaha in October at which a permanent president will be chosen.

And the club owners might do well to cast about among themselves for a man who would fit O'Neill's shoes better than Tip has ever fitted them. John Savage, owner of the local club, has every qualification for running a league.

Savage, when asked if he did not think the league might find it economical and satisfactory to elect one of the club owners, said: "I hardly think so. It might be economical, but I doubt if it would be satisfactory."

Savage was not sounded on the attitude he would take if such a proposition were made him by the other club owners, but he was asked if there had ever been an occasion where a club owner was the permanent head of a league, and he replied: "I think so, in some minor leagues."

There is not much of a possibility that Savage or any other owner will be considered for the place, but Savage certainly would make a good proxy, and there is no legitimate reason why a club owner should not serve in this capacity.

The majority of the club owners are men of high moral character and they are above the insinuation that they might show favoritism to their own club if put on the throne. Most of them would rather take the worst of it than do anything that would lay them liable to criticism along this line.

From an economical standpoint such an arrangement would be a big saving to the league. One of the club owners could serve in the capacity of president for much less than an outsider of the caliber required can be procured for. And an arrangement could be made whereby he would serve for little more than the added expense in lean years like the present one has been.

But even if the owners could not agree on one man, they might arrange a plan by which three of them could look after the duties of the president's office. Of course, anything out of the beaten path would be more or less of an experiment. But worst conditions than have existed can hardly be conceived. And there is little doubt that men like McGill, Hamilton, Tom Jones and John Savage and Elbright and Pa Rourke would have to go blind before they would permit things to exist in a league they were running that have existed in the Western league in times past.

A Columbia, Missouri, sheet is quoted as saying that the K. U. Jayhawkers look like the best bet in the Missouri Valley on paper this year. Coming from the one town in the valley that probably would rather see a weakling Jayhawker eleven than any other place on earth, this statement may be taken as a big boost for the

A Speedy Course.

A fleet of automobiles was busy ironing out the track this morning and predictions were for a speedy course and some record time, as the speed management is anxious to bring the state's fastest mile to Topeka.

Should the track come up to expectations for Saturday several of the drivers are going after the world's competition record for 25 miles of 32 minutes and 47 seconds held by Bill Endicott with the Case.

Olcott camp. However, last year's experience taught that paper strength doesn't count for very much on grid-irons.

A news dispatch sent out from Lincoln states that Guy Chamberlain, brilliant halfback on Stieh's Husker steam roller eleven last season, may not return to college this fall. Chamberlain, so the dispatch says, is needed on his father's farm and may spend the winter rushing bulls instead of bucking gridiron lines.

Simmons New Friends' Captain.

Wichita, Kan., Sept. 17.—Verne Simmons, right halfback on last year's football team of Friends' university, has been elected captain for the coming season, succeeding Paul MacReady, who did not return to school. Simmons was picked for an all-state half-back by several coaches of Kansas schools last year.

DASHNER BEAT "BUGS"

Topeka Pitchers Battled Against Each Other at Beloit Thursday.

Beloit, Kan., Sept. 17.—"Animal" Dashner and "Bugs" Grover, both pitchers on the Topeka Western league club this year, were pitted against each other Thursday in a game between Delphos and Simpson.

Dashner's team won by a score of 7 to 1. Grover was wild and was hit at critical times, while Dashner was steady with men on base. The same teams play at Simpson today.

TAKE a small chew of W-B CUT Chewing—the Real Tobacco Chew, cut long shred—and see for yourself that a nibble of real tobacco is better than a mouthful of the old kind.

Richer, more satisfying and lasts you longer—a ready chew, too—the taste comes steady, without the grinding.

It's news that one gentleman likes to tell another.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

GET W-B CUT CHEWING. IT IS THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW. CUT LONG SHRED.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.
